Event Overview:

- No demonstrators reported to be on Parliament Hill at this time.
- No demonstrators reported on Wellington Street and Metcalfe.

Operational Information:

- Stolen Tractor Trailer:
 - o As at 12:51 am, the Ontario OCC reports receiving provincial alert to the effect that 2019 Freightliner New Cascadia 126, Ontario Marker #9382PV has been recovered in Brampton by Pell Regional Police. The trailer and contents remain outstanding.
- FPNS Task Force Updates:

- Reviewed CIG updates: #149 No Concerns identified. #150, 151 concerns have been identified see below.
 - Public safety: CIG #150 – OSINT located a death threat against Personal Info. and any members of the Freedom Convoy. Duty to warn was done by the OPS in this matter. The OPS is the POJ for the death threat.
 - CIG #150 Federal Government’s Emergencies Act announcement: The Freedom Convoy delivered a press release at 15h00 announcing that they will “hold the line” if the government is moving forward with the Emergency Act.
 - Federal government announced the Emergency Act in place at approx. 16h00. FPNS monitored for changes in online rhetoric and none were noted.
- CIG #151 Personal at 17h03 Personal video announcement on his FB page: Pers asked the protesters to not go away and the police will drop their badge to not follow through this (i.e. probably the Emergency Act) and told his followers that the Coutts border weapons were planted there and encouraged more protesters to attend Coutts border. FPNS is reviewing his online statements to assess if a criminal investigation is warranted.
 - PROS 2022-111482: Alberta blockade/protest at the COUTTS Port of Entry. K-Div GIS section assisted by K-INSET is actively engaged in a criminal investigation pertaining to some individuals involved in the blockade/protest. UPDATE 2022-02-14 @15h30 A large farm tractor attempted to ram a police vehicle on 2022-02-13. Late evening the driver of the tractor was identified and the RCMP is attempting to locate him for arrest. A search warrant and arrest were executed in the early morning of 2022-02-14. 11 people were arrested and the results of the search was the seizure of 13 long guns, handguns, body armour, machete, ammunition and high capacity magazines. K-INSET remains in an assistance role in this investigation with FPNS oversight.
- CIG OSINT located a live video on Facebook: Hug A Trucker Press Conference: Feb 14th 19:11.
- Speaker indicates there is no need to be nervous and the movement of trucks downtown have nothing to do with any agreements made with the government. The movements are being coordinated by the convoy operations group.
 - Persona states: ‘Don’t back off’ and ‘He will be the last man to leave Ottawa’. Pers emphasizes to ‘hold the line, do not back down, we got your backs.’

- o Pers addresses Coutts and tells protestors not to leave as help is coming from the South. Pers previously stated help from the south was coming in a video posted earlier on the 14th.
 - o Per mentions to check out www.freedomconvoytoken.com^[i]
- CIG OSINT located a video on s.37 by Personal (believed to be associated to Perso Personal at 20:19 encouraging those who cannot participate in the trucking protest to take the whole week of the February 21st off work, and to hold the line. ^[iii]
- Additional Intel Updates:
 - o CIG OSINT identified a Twitter post indicating conversations on CB stations were occurring as to whether or not to storm 24 Sussex tonight. ^[iii]
 - o CIG OSINT indicates these conversations may have been heard on a Twitter Space called 'emergency meeting #Freedomconvoy2022'. This is a public live forum where individuals can join and leave at any time. ^[iv]
 - o CIG-OSINT located a video published early morning on the 2022-02-15, likely filmed in the evening of 2022-02-14. In the video, Daniel BULFORD makes a statement with the following points:
 - He introduces himself as Dany BULFORD, former RCMP Sniper, Supervisor and regularly tasked with the protection of the Prime Minister.
 - BULFORD states that on 2022-02-14, they received information from multiple sources, believed reliable.
 - Source states that multiple firearms are being planted in Ottawa, specifically around the Freedom Convoy.
 - The firearms are planted to discredit the convoy and give pretense to remove peaceful protesters.
 - They are revealing this information due to it's nature, in the interest of public safety.
 - Claims the intelligence gathered correlates with the 2000 firearms stolen in Peterborough.
 - Source claims those firearms will be planted by "nefarious elements".
 - Claims they don't have anymore information on who is behind this "act of sabotage".
 - BULFORD indicated that as soon they received the information, they alerted

OPS, PPS, OPP, RCMP.

- Implores demonstrators that if they see something suspicious to call 911 immediately.
 - Many came to demonstrate peacefully and asks the police not to act indiscriminately
 - Asks that all scrupulous journalists to turn their investigative talents on this matter.
 - They expressly affirm that change can only occur through a democratic process.
 - They do not intend to step outside of the democratic process.
 - Public and police safety is paramount to them. [\[iv\]](#)
- o The Canadian Anti-Hate Network shared images to their twitter page (@antihateca) of the gear seized by police at the Coutts blockade. The gear seized includes a plate carrier with Diagonal patches. An Infidel patch was also spotted amongst the seized gear. [\[i\]](#) [\[ii\]](#) [\[iii\]](#)

Operational Planning:

- Nil updates at this time.

Protective Clients and Protective Sites:

- s.37 [REDACTED] – all within the NCR.

Communications:

- There are more than 350 news items in media monitoring this morning in relation to the demonstrations, and more than 400 related to the invoking of the Emergencies Act by the Federal Government.
- Reporting focuses mainly on the invoking of the Emergencies Act and the arrest of the now 13 protesters in Alberta yesterday. Two additional arrests had been executed late in the day Monday.
- The Emergency Measures Act was officially announced at a press conference at 4:30 yesterday with the PM and other government officials to provide greater details on how those greater measures will better equip law enforcement to address the protests. In relation to the Ottawa situation, it was stated that RCMP officers will be able to enforce provincial and municipal acts and bylaws without having to be sworn-in as special constables. Updated media lines are being developed accordingly to address anticipated media requests.

- Demo organizers held an online meeting and press conference last night, urging protesters not to back down. Daniel Bulford is seen providing the latest Freedom Convoy “intel”, saying that thousands of firearms stolen from Peterborough may now be “planted in Ottawa”
- A special meeting of the OPS Board is being held at 10:30 a.m. today.
- A government media technical briefing is scheduled for tomorrow morning (Time TBD) with Dennis Daley as the RCMP representative to explain what these measures will entail nationally from an RCMP standpoint. This is a background briefing and is therefore not for direct attribution.
- Nat Div Communication Services has received one media requests this morning, looking to corroborate the information that these weapons may now be in Ottawa. The request is being referred to OPS.
